

20 Recommended Reads for EYFS

Book title	Author	Front cover	Description
Where is the dragon?	Leo Timmers		A hide-and-seek picture book about three silly knights and a clever dragon in disguise. The king can't sleep for fear of the dragon, so he sends his three knights outside to find it. With only one candle between them, they go out into the dark. Is that a dragon?
Billy and the Beast	Nadia Shireen		While out on a lovely walk in the woods, Billy and her trusty sidekick Fatcat hear a terrible rumble... a terrible rumble coming from a Terrible Beast! He's making a Terrible Soup out of all of Billy and Fatcat's friends! Luckily, our brave heroine Billy has a trick or two up her sleeve (or in her hair)... Join quick-thinking Billy on her mission to defeat the Terrible Beast (and save those adorable little bunny rabbits too).
Brown Bear Brown Bear	Bill Martin Jr		Exuberantly coloured artwork and favourite animals make this rhythmic story the perfect introduction to looking and learning about colours. Each spread leads seamlessly into the next and young children will delight in Eric's colourful collage animals and simple repetitive language.

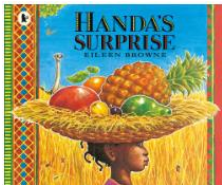

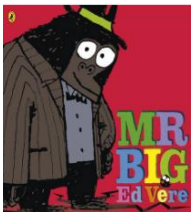

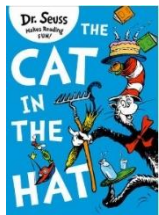

20 Recommended Reads for EYFS

Owl Babies	Martin Waddell		A gentle tale of three baby owls reassures young children that Mummy will always come home. Three baby owls, Sarah, Percy and Bill, wake up one night in their hole in a tree to find that their mother has gone. So they sit on a branch and wait...
The Rainbow Fish	Marcus Pfister		The Rainbow Fish is an award-winning book about a beautiful fish who finds friendship and happiness when he learns to share. The book is best known for its morals about the value of being an individual and for the distinctive shiny foil scales of the Rainbow Fish.
Press Here	Herve Tullet		Press the yellow dot on the cover of this interactive children's book, follow the instructions within, and embark upon a magical journey!

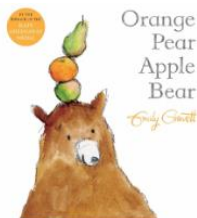

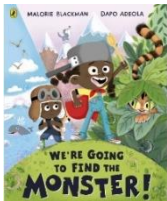

20 Recommended Reads for EYFS

Peace at Last	Jill Murphy		A funny story about Mr Bear's desperate attempts to find a quiet place to sleep. Where ever he goes and which ever room he tries, there's an annoying noise.
Through the Magic Mirror	Anthony Browne		When Toby tires of every day being the same, he stumbles into a brand new world when he travels through a magical mirror.
The Very Hungry Caterpillar	Eric Carle		A beautifully illustrated story of a caterpillar eating his way through the book.

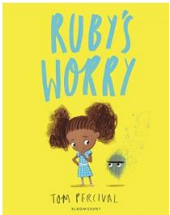

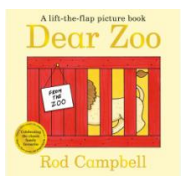

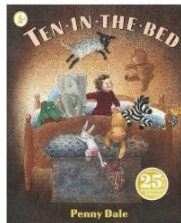

20 Recommended Reads for EYFS

How to Catch a Star	Oliver Jeffers		A boy who loves to stare at the night sky longs to have his very own. So one day he decides to catch one.
Handa's Surprise	Eileen Brown		When Handa takes a fruit basket to her friend, little does she realise that animals are sneaking off with her produce along the journey. Will there be anything left in the basket when she reaches the village.?
Mr Big	Ed Vere		Mr Big just wants friends, but he is so big that he scares them off. How can he get people to see beyond his huge appearance and notice the person inside?
The Cat in the Hat	Dr Seuss		Possibly the coolest cat in existence, he can turn the most boring day into a fun adventure for Sally and her brother.

20 Recommended Reads for EYFS

Orange Pear Apple Bear	Emily Gravett		This inventive book contains just the four words in the title, continually rearranged in a variety of combinations. In the pictures the bear and the three kinds of fruit also shift and change position and sometimes colour.
Supertato	Sue Hendra		Vegetable superhero Supertato meets his nemesis in a very naughty pea who has escaped from the freezer. Can Supertato restore peace and order or will the pea cause havoc?
We're going to find the monster!	Malorie Blackman		Over the shimmering ocean, up the huge, high mountain, through the deep, dark forest... WE'RE GOING TO FIND THE MONSTER!

20 Recommended Reads for EYFS

Ruby's Worry	Tom Percival		Ruby is a happy little girl, content with exploring the world around her, until one day she discovers a Worry. The nature of Ruby's Worry is never disclosed, suffice it to say it grows and grows, as she internalises it and doesn't confide her concerns. Eventually Ruby recognises that another child is equally troubled and finds that sharing her Worry can make it disappear.
Dear Zoo	Rod Campbell		A child writes to the zoo to ask for a pet and is sent all sorts of unsuitable animals until finally a 'perfect' puppy arrives. A lift-the-flap book which presents the reader with a guessing game. Clues are provided by a glimpse of part of each animal, by the adjectives used to describe them, and by the packaging in which they come.
Ten in the Bed	Penny Dale		The traditional rhyme, except that each of the ten that falls out of bed is a cuddly toy. When they have all fallen out the child in the bed is cold, so they jump back in again. The gently humorous night-time pictures give a renewed charm to this well-known 'counting down' rhyme.
Walking through the Jungle	Julie Lacome		A small child walks, creeps, runs, leaps, swings and, finally, wades through the jungle - hearing animal noises as he goes - in this traditional, everybody-join-in rhyme.